CHAMPIONNE

championne has prudence, determination and a general dislike for wasting its time.
a real boris spassky.

wickedness, infamy, trickery, shady gambits and shameless deceptions, so many ways of stealing your little sister's cookie, so many ways of surviving.
who will be left to know, ene hasiberria,
who will say tomorrow that the survivor cheated? the end does not justify the means, not those of the loser, as the winner imposes its justice.

if running, hunting honourably and breeding are the essential elements of life, a little bit of lying sure makes it fun!

championne breeds just after having eaten. when should your sorkariak go and multiply?

move the reproduction code.
figure out where it would be the wickedest.

tricking thy neighbour isn't always hard.
think about it.
